Dear Tod:

Your presentation at the Healthpoint National Sales Meeting was outstanding!

As you would expect, based on our post-meeting survey, your presentation was rated the Number One presentation of all throughout the entire week, as rated on delivery, content, and value to the attendee. You accomplished all of the objectives we had established for your presentation, and added more useful information as well. Your presentation was a unique combination of solid professional delivery, humor, and a strong message.

Your presentation started our meeting just as we planned, with our sales force and internal attendees excited about a good week ahead of them, and analyzing everyone else to determine which type of "Bird" they were dealing with! I would not hesitate to recommend you as a valuable contributor for any sales meeting in the future.

Thanks again for your contributions to our meeting.

Regards,

J. Sam Jowers
Vice President of Sales
